Thinking, figuring, resolving, and wondering, I am the brains of the school. I take time to study, test my knowledge, learn my limits and my goals. Encountering both the most minute and ultimate of decisions, learning now, and taking steps towards the future, I am the brains.

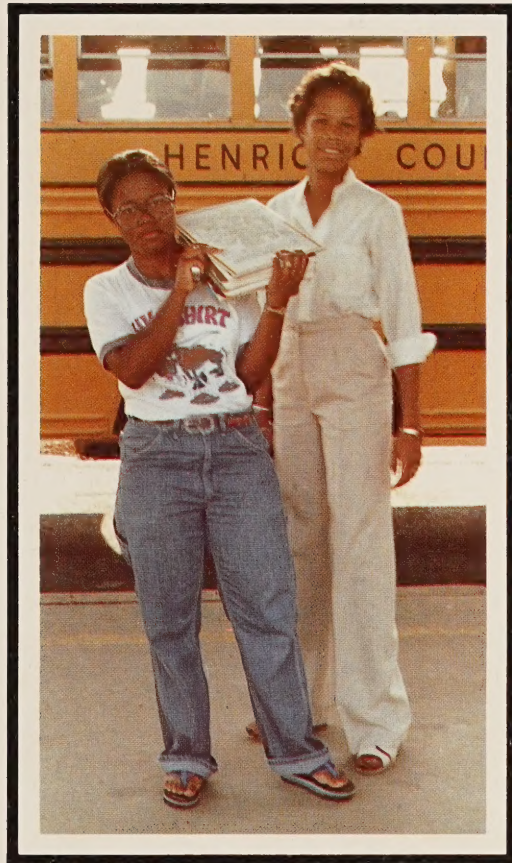

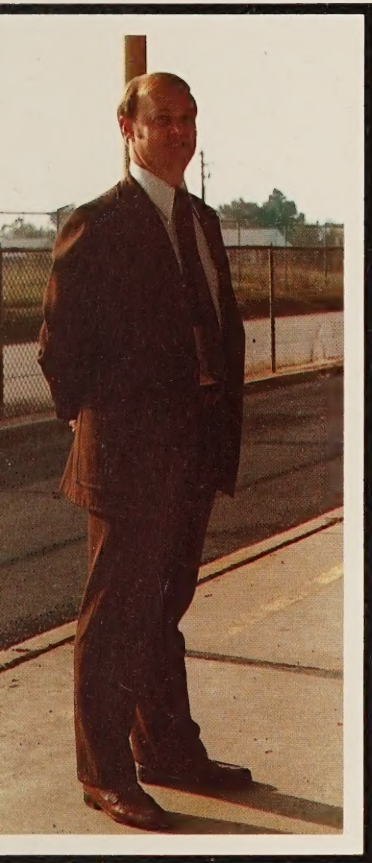

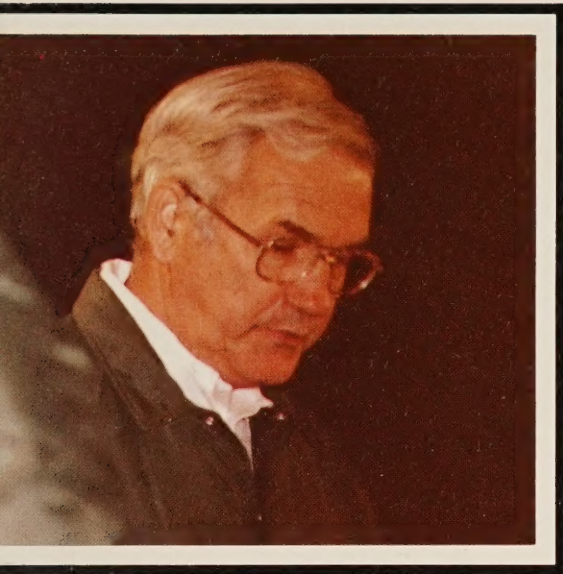

Leading, disciplining, demanding, and counseling, I am the authority of the school. I take time to plan what I teach, my impressions making a mark in time. The future holds the knowledge of today. A continual test of endurance, self-control, and determination, I am the authority.

Yelling, participating, acting, and communicating, I am the spirit of the school. I take time to express my thoughts and abilities, challenge my talents and practice for a goal. Boisterous and suddenly quiet, freely moving, then confined, movements and voices all different, I am the spirit.

Organizing, discussing, planning, and fund-raising, I am the dedication of the school. Helping the community and school as best I see fit, I play a role, make a contribution, bring a smile, or am a friend. Money is a factor, but all is not just bought. Good results from work is my reward. I am the dedication.

Practicing, winning, losing, sweating, and competing, I am the brawn of the school. Taking time to reason, figure, and readjust, I must be versatile and prepared. Going out to win the game, prove my strength, and learn from my mistakes, I have victory as my goal. I am the brawn.

Dealing, selling, buying, and advertising, I am the business of the school. A major role, a key factor, my part is mandatory for success. Traveling, obtaining facts, figures, and knowledge, applying all together for a function, coping and readjusting become a game. I must proceed; I am the business.

And the 1978 Homecoming Queen Is . . .

Nervous tension, smiles, screams and tears were all evident during the crowning of the 1978 Homecoming Queen. Creative floats, the band and the Homecoming court all circled the field. Clubs and classes all worked extremely hard on the floats. The football team worked just as hard. Homecoming 1978 was an absolute success. Congratulations go out to Maid of Honor Debbie Williams and Homecoming Queen Mildred Fulton.

Give 'em the Ax!

A familiar face, whether at wrestling meets, at school activities or in the classroom, Ronnie Axselle is a well-known figure on campus. He is a pillar of strength in all his endeavors. His friendly smile and encouraging words have brightened many a student's day. His classroom manner reflects his humorous personality. His teams win with his enthusiasm and vigor. This school benefits from his kindness and devotion; therefore, this book is dedicated to Coach Ron Axselle.

So . . . "Give 'em the Ax!"

We Are Almost There

There are four long years in high school, but they seem so short. This last year will be filled with all kinds of lasting traditions. They start with Senior Convocation and go on with the Homecoming dance. The Homecoming and Winter Carnival Courts are picked with great excitement, along with Senior Superlatives later in the year.

There are caps and gowns to be ordered and announcements to be sent out. The plans for Baccalaureate and Graduation are not far from being in the making. The years have been full of fun, but there has been plenty of work, too. Everyone has been taking his own special steps toward a bright and meaningful future.

Juniors Think of the Future

While the Juniors are beginning to look ahead to college applications and other plans that take shape in the final stretch of high school, they continue to work as a unit to accomplish the goals of the class of 1980. To help them carry out the important plans of this year, the class elected Steve Cooke as president, Brian Shook as vice president, Charlotte Whitlock as secretary, and Michelle Diaz as treasurer. The Junior class also relied on the support and guidance of their sponsor, Miss Florence Bishop. The class started the year by once again creating a first-prize-winning Homecoming float. The arrival of class rings in October added to the excitement of their Junior year. As the year progressed, Prom became the focal point of their activities. The future looks promising for the class of 1980 as they face their last years at Henrico High School.

Sophomores Taking Care of Business

Taking care of business and enjoying themselves keeps the sophomore class busy. Leading the class are President Pam Coxford, Vice President Michelle Sprouse, Secretary Donna Lucord, Treasurer Dee Trevvett and sponsor Mrs. Nichols. Having bake sales, selling warrior jerseys and maintaining the grass between the 50 building and the library are some of the projects that are being undertaken by the sophomore class. Not only are the sophomores having fun, but they are also getting down to business.

Freshmen on the Go

The freshmen are young, eager and on the go. The freshman class leaders, President Kay-Kay Smith, Vice President Laura Smith, Secretary Alisa Simmers, and Treasurer Yvette Davis along with class sponsor Mrs. Scott work with the rest of the freshmen to make their first year a successful one. They are working very hard on projects such as selling warrior head charms, warrior buttons, and candy. They also maintain the courtyard between South Cafeteria and building 100. Making money and participating in campus activities start the class of '82 off with a bang.

New Chiefs

The administration of Henrico High School has undergone a great change this year. Dr. Edgar V. Wallin is our new principal. Thomas L. Walls and W. F. Cumbo, Jr. have joined Alan Dessenberger as assistant principals. With this change-over in the administration a new attitude has developed. The students and faculty have a renewed mutual respect for one another. They want to promote a feeling of respect for the school and a sense of responsibility for one's personal conduct. They encourage the faculty to become involved in the school as a whole not just in the classroom. The new administration has strived to be responsive to the students' needs and the teachers' needs. The new administration believes in a policy of helping students and teachers to realize their own needs. In this way, they will make their own goals and make a commitment to meet these goals.

Behind the Scenes

This is Mrs. Valdrighi's first year at Henrico High School. Her previous job was with Bethlehem Elementary School and she has found the change to high school very exciting. Mrs. Valdrighi has two sons, ages twelve and fourteen. She likes to spend her vacation fishing on the Chesapeake Bay.

Mrs. Bevan enjoys her work and likes helping the students. She loves it when the graduates return to visit. In her spare time Mrs. Bevan crochets afghans and reads. Her favorite authors are Leon Uris and Maureen McCullough. She has one daughter, three sons, two grandchildren and two more grandchildren on the way.

This is Mrs. Harris' fifteenth year at Henrico. She enjoys her work and says that the students and teachers make her job easier. Her son and daughter graduated in 1967 and 1969 from Henrico. Her daughter has a two-year-old girl and her son is getting his PhD in organic chemistry at the University of Florida.

Mrs. Pennell's daughter's husband is in the Coast Guard. They visited him in Kodiak, Alaska where he was stationed. They spent two weeks there in the summer. She said the water was beautiful and it is a haven for men — plenty of good hunting and fishing. Since her return, she has given several slide presentations on her trip.

Mrs. Martin is a graduate of Hermitage High School. She is proud of her two boys, ages seven and nine. The students of Henrico High School make her job enjoyable.

Mrs. King is one of Henrico's avid sports fans. Her two daughters were involved with gymnastics when they attended Henrico. They are both students at V.C.U. and are interested in teaching physical education. Her oldest daughter is an assistant gym coach at Tucker.

Mrs. Burks believes that the students here are the nicest of any school she worked with. The students and administration are very cooperative. She is proud to have had two children graduate from Henrico and one more who will graduate soon.

Mrs. DuRusha and her staff are very pleased with the new administration. They have noticed a marked change in the students' manner and attitudes in the cafeteria. The staff appreciates the cooperation they receive from the faculty. They are feeding at least 70% of the student body which is more than ever before.

In Mr. Thomas' spare time he likes to fish and to hunt. He hunts throughout Virginia especially in Buckingham. He even has his own hunting dogs. Mr. Thomas likes the school system because it gives him time for his pastimes. He likes the administration and he thinks it is very fair. He has been married for eleven years.

The Facets of Authority

The Yearbook Editorial Staff circulated a questionnaire among the faculty and administration of Henrico High School. The questions posed in this survey were meant to reveal the different sides of the average teacher. What activities did he participate in while in high school? What college did he attend? Do many teachers hold jobs outside of the school? Unfortunately, of the one hundred and five teachers and administrators polled, only fifty-seven percent actually returned our survey. The following pages will reveal the results from this representative group.

In addition to teaching, some of our faculty put in extra hours of work before "going home." Fifty-seven percent of our responding teachers sponsor clubs at school. # About Face

Excelling in character, leadership, scholarship, and service is one of the goals students try to achieve. Adjusting to different environments, occasions, and situations also is a part of the students' willingness and ability to adapt to school life.

On January 5, 1979, a group of students were selected to be tapped into the National Honor Society. The Honorable Charles S. Robb was the guest speaker for the occasion. He expressed his views on the four qualities, character, leadership, scholarship, and service, necessary for induction into the National Honor Society.

Notable Achievement

This past summer Henrico was proud to have students selected to attend Boys' and Girls' State and The Governor's School for the Gifted. Ten Juniors and one Sophomore were selected through teachers' evaluations and community organizations. The time spent at the assigned college campuses for the activities proved to be a very valuable and memorable experience to all. The TOTEM POLE would like to recognize these students and congratulate them for their achievements.

Foreign Exchange: Janet Knowles Arrives From “Down Under”

Janet Knowles, Henrico's foreign exchange student, arrived in August to spend this school year. Janet lives in Kaitaia, New Zealand. She is involved in such school activities as French Club, A.F.S., Concert Choir, and H-Teens. Outside of school activities, Janet likes to go shopping and dancing. Some of her favorite singers include Joni Mitchell and Steely Dan. Janet says the first thing she noticed was the friendliness everyone showed. She said she likes the cold weather and is looking forward to seeing snow for the first time while she is here.

Career Bound

Each day a number of students go to the Highland Springs Vo-Tech Center. These students spend half of their school day learning trades and skills to prepare themselves for later careers. Courses offered at the Vo-Tech Center range from Cosmetology to Refrigeration and Air Conditioning. Hard work is put out by all of the "career bound" students who attend Vo-Tech.

Make WWAR, Not Love

WWAR, sponsored by Mr. Davis, changed the format of the show this year. New additions and changes in regular features created a new image. Not many people realize how much hard work and extra time is spent by the staff and advisor to create a successful tape. The monthly airing gives the student body a chance to see what is going on in classes, sports and clubs.

Upper Left: Mr. Davis prepares to tape a show. Middle Left: Mr. Davis, advisor to WWAR, spends extra time in the studio. Middle Right: R. Shefelton adjusts equipment to insure a perfect show. Left: The WWAR staff works together towards a successful broadcast.

Have You Got That Spirit?

A big switch occurred this year in the procedures followed for the pep rallies. Much more planning and organization resulted in 100% improvement of student body participation. The cheerleaders, Mr. Warrior, the band members and the administration all cooperated together to make pep rallies a big S-U-C-C-E-S-S.

Several unique performances were displayed at pep rallies this year. One main attraction was the fantastic performance of the U.S. Air Force Band, Mach I.

Darryl Clowers is caught doing an Indian war dance. Below: The Pep Club adds some spirit to the pep rally.

The Class of '79 sold candy and doughnuts, collected dues, and sponsored a Donkey Basketball game so that they would have enough funds for a fantastic prom. Under the leadership of two dedicated chairmen, Dwayne Murphy and Sarah Ogilvie, juniors worked diligently making preparations and addressing invitations. The color theme of the dance was red and gold. Miss Whitley and her juniors truly welcomed the upper classmen to "Hotel California" on May 6, 1978.

Hotel California

BE REFLECTIONS

By Spectrum

Shining and glimmering decorations, provided by the senior class, set the appropriate mood for this year's Homecoming Dance. The band, Spectrum, created the perfect music and atmosphere for a night of dancing. The announcement of Homecoming court was delayed due to several late arrivals. Eventually the court was announced, and the evening continued at a very lively pace.

Snowbird . . . Winter Carnival 1979

The 1979 Winter Carnival Dance sponsored by the S.G.A., provided a night of dancing and fun for all. Snowbird, the theme was carried throughout in all of the decorations. The band, J.J. and Company, and the decorations set the mood for this year's dance. Outstanding cooperation and help from the students and organizations also contributed to the success of the Winter Carnival Dance. Members of the court had their exciting moment too as each couple was announced before the crowd. The 1979 Winter Carnival Queen, Terry Daley, and King, Fountain Lewis, were crowned with much enthusiasm.

Progression of Change

This year the atmosphere at Henrico High School has become transformed. Spirit has been high. Brains have been active. Brawn has been vigorous. Authority has been strong. All of these evidences can be attributed to a progression of change in our school.

The role of principal was assumed by Dr. Edgar Wallin. Mr. Tom Walls and Mr. Frank Cumbo joined Mr. Alan Dessenberger as assistant principals. This enthusiastic team of administrators became the instigators of change.

The alterations occurred initially in tangible ways. Students were given an additional choice in the lunch line, salads. Ice cream and milkshakes also were made available. New privileges were instituted for seniors including a legal skip day. The entire student body enjoyed the music of the Air Force Band, Mach I. The students were not the only segment which benefited; teachers enjoyed the convenience of a multiple-copy Xerox machine. CETA aides relieved the teachers of a few of their many responsibilities.

These physical changes have brought corresponding intangible changes. A three-way respect formerly existing among students, faculty, and administration has been strengthened. Discipline has been improved; classes have become more enjoyable; pep rallies, livelier. A psychological transformation has been evident throughout the school.

With all its restructuring, Henrico High School still strives to prepare its students for the future, but in a way that makes the present happy and enjoyable. This year, fulfillment and achievement in school have been ensured for us by a progression of positive change.

Taking Care of Business

Vica or ICT is a very active organization. The sponsor of ICT is Mr. Bowling. The members go to school and learn a special trade. From there, they find jobs. Some of this year's ICT activities were projects for needy families, a fall leadership conference, and lots more.

Deca is an outgoing club. The sponsors are Mr. Harwood, Mr. Epling, and Mr. Hanberry. The members of Deca learn techniques in a classroom with on-the-job training. Activities vary from selling candy to a club picnic in Bryant Park and an employer-employee banquet.

People Helping People to Care

The talents of Henrico's students are not limited to brain work. One of the best programs Henrico offers is the Students' Organization on Developing Attitudes. SODA teams consist of a girl and a guy who "adopt" an elementary class for a year. The bond between the partners and their classes is often strong, and you will never find a SODA member who is not delighted with the program. Sponsored by Miss Woolridge and Mr. Ganzert, SODA has become a select group of all around great students who enjoy working with kids.

One of the highest honors at Henrico is to be "tapped" into one of these three groups: Thespians, sponsored by Miss Cosby, National Honor Society, sponsored by Miss Coleman, and Quill and Scroll, sponsored by Mrs. Payne. An annual ceremony is held for each society to recognize the new members. Although in the past they have been fairly inactive, this year they tried to become action, as well as honorary groups.

Getting the Word Out

Assisted by Mr. Moore, The Smoke Signals News Magazine is distributed monthly to Henrico High School students and staff. The Smoke Signals has been striving to bring more knowledge about the school and community to students. Receiving its only income by selling ads, the staff buys the necessary paper and ink to develop the newspaper. The paper is printed and then distributed by the staff members.

V.C. Get That Disco Fever

The Spirit Makers of Henrico have always been the Varsity Cheerleaders. This year's squad not only lived up to its reputation but surpassed it. Cheers like "Get down, disco, hey Warriors let's go!" give a new beat to the traditional cheers. The fact that our cheerleaders are the best was not only recognized by the student body, but was also proved when they won the district cheerleading competition. With the help of Miss Betsy Conner and Mr. Warrior, Darryl Clowers, the squad was exceptional this year.

Spirit Makers

It is not easy being a Junior Varsity or Ninth Grade cheerleader. Although the underclassmen's sports sometimes do not receive all the recognition they should, none appreciate them more than the cheerleaders. Since neither receives the benefit of an athletic study hall to practice their cheers, it takes much dedication to be at all practices and games. Because of their sparkle and enthusiasm, it is obvious that there will be much spirit in the next couple of years.

The colorguard, a very popular group at Henrico, has been a focus of attention this year. It consists of twenty-one flags, eight rifles and commanders with sabres. With a unique style that catches the eye, the colorguard has brought much glamour and sophistication to the football field.

An Added Touch

Led by Co-Captains Robyn Longest and Michelle Bartlett, the Majorettes have added a special touch to school events. Their bright smiles and coordinated moves attract the eye of the audience and hold its interest.

With loud and spirited voices the Pep Club has been an enormous aid to school spirit at Henrico. Henrico High School hopes this new group is welcomed with great hopes for its success.

Strike Up the Band

The marching band was under the direction of a new band director, Mr. Aumen, this year. They have even improved their usual excellent half time performances. They competed in many contests this year, and with the money they made from the citrus fruit sale, were able to make one of their annual trips. The dedication of the band has always been evident by their willingness to practice almost every morning before school. They are definitely appreciated by the student body.

Making Music With Sounds and Expressions

Finding fourteen enthusiastic girls with exceptional voices and dancing ability would be a difficult job if Henrico did not have such talented girls. Directed by Miss Buenger, known for her ability to bring out the best in all her students, Expressions performs many exciting numbers, mostly consisting of popular music.

An equally talented group is Sounds. They concentrate almost exclusively on singing with some choreography and have a variety of songs ranging from madrigal to pop. Both groups perform at a large number of functions and are enjoyed by all.

Gorgeous and Athletic

GAA, Girl's Athletic Association, is sponsored by Miss Baker. The girls have a chicken dinner every year to help raise money for a scholarship that they give to a girl athlete. They have meetings once a week and participate in many sport-related projects around the school. GAA is a club of girls who help better the future for girls at Henrico.

The four H-Teens at Henrico can be classified as helping clubs. They are either baking goodies for a dance or going to the children's home to spread a little happiness. All of these girls, along with their sweethearts, are trying to make a better community and school. This year Senior H-Teens bought jackets for themselves with Henrico H-Teens written on them to show that they are proud of their club. H-Teens Δ III is sponsored by Mrs. Barthurst. # Key Club Turns to New Sponsor

This year Key Club has the pleasure of having a new sponsor, Mr. Gary Criswell. Along to help Mr. Criswell is Wayne Smith, the President. Terry Daley and Mary Sue Harris have been selected by the Key Club to be Sweethearts. You may have recognized some of the members by the hats and ties that they wear once a week. Some projects Key Club are known for are the yearly spaghetti supper, clean-up on Saturday mornings after the Friday night games, attending church, and planting shrubs in the courtyards at Henrico.

Time Passes Quickly . . .

The Yearbook underwent some very big changes this year with two new sponsors, Mrs. Marlow and Mrs. Whitten, and a new publishing company. Because of this we have been able to incorporate into the Totem Pole many new and original ideas. The staff has worked hard together as a unit, but has still allowed for individuality. It was just as hectic this year meeting the perpetual deadlines by hurriedly cropping and creating. However, the satisfaction received when the Yearbook is completed was worth all the headaches . . . and, of course, all the fun.

Takin' It to the Hoop!

Defeating everyone in the Colonial District, the lady Warriors were devastating as they piled up an impressive record with only one loss against arch rival Douglas Freeman. Playing their second game against Freeman, the mighty Warriors avenged themselves, winning by a landslide.

The starting five always set the pace for the other girls, and they in turn kept up the tempo. Together they won the games by a large margin of points.

Led by coach Joan Darden and senior tri-captains Denise Kizzie, Ellen Timberlake, and Benita Turner, the team kept the points rolling in. A school record of 85 points was broken.

A New Season Means New Wins

The Girls Tennis Team had many pleasant surprises this season. One was in freshman Leanne Seward who is smashing her way through every match with great ease. Another surprise was defeating Tucker for the first time in the history of the school. Coach Nancy Carrig turned the girls over to Coach Fay Rawlings who is doing a fantastic job in pulling the team together. Tennis became a fall sport this year and the girls began practicing in August along with all other fall sports. Top players were Leanne Seward, Susan Erdman, Michelle Diaz and Georgianne Stinnet, (co-captains), Lisa Duke, and Francis Pitts. They are basically a young team with the only returning seniors being Lori Allen and Julie Bartle. However, with determination and outstanding skills, the Lady Warriors were successful in taking the district and state titles. At state level Susan won first and second in singles, respectively and they combined their efforts to take the doubles competition.

The Young and the Restless

"I've only got thirteen seniors on my squad, and thirty-five sophomores. I'm going to have to play three or four sophomores and they tell me an old rule of thumb is you're going to lose one game for every sophomore." This statement, made by Coach John Brown at the start of the 1978 season, might have seemed a bit pessimistic. This would appear especially true after an opening game win over Meadowbrook. However, the wisdom of Coach Brown shone through in the next three games as the Warriors were defeated by Lee-Davis (for sophomore Kenny Carr), Thomas Jefferson (for sophomore Kevin Sprouse), and George Wythe (for sophomore Timmy Holmes). Finally, there was a turnabout week when players wore their jerseys, socks, and other equipment inside out, ending in a victory over Patrick Henry.

The Warriors' overall record (4-6) does not do the team justice. Many of the losses were to superior teams by narrow margins, and the season was ended on a positive note — two consecutive wins over J. R. Tucker and Thomas Dale. Also, it must be considered that there were only three returning starters — Wilcox, Bowles, and Perkins. Though this year's record is the first losing one in ten years, Henrico may look forward to in the coming years the young and the restless becoming the experienced and the victorious.

J.V. Football Says: Warriors Can't Be Beat

On Saturday mornings, while the Friday night superstars are still dreaming of their glories of the night before, Henrico's J.V. football team is out on the field gritting their teeth and holding the line to give their school another victory. They overcame such awesome opponents as Freeman and Highland Springs. Key players were quarterback — Ricky Ziglar, runningback — David Estes, and Linebacker — Kenny Covington. For the most part, the J.V. proved that Warriors can't be beat.

Henrico's youngest gridders — the 9th grade squad, were under the able instruction of Head Coach Nelson Elam, and assistant coaches Dale Svor and Gary Criswell. Unfortunately the team had a disappointing season with a record of (1-5). Their toughest opponents were Fairfield and Freeman. Many of the 9th grade players show promise, however, among these being the tri-captains Glenn Thomas — Guard, Jimmy Harless — Quarterback, and Keith Roberts — Halfback. As these players gain experience and grow older, Henrico may look forward to many winning seasons.

Moving Like Never Before

Led by Coach Guy Davis, the basket-shooting opponent-smearing, game-winning Warriors racked up a good-looking scoreboard for the 1979 season. They refused to give up one game in the district with a final record of 12 wins and no losses. In the past three years, the famous Henrico Warriors have dominated the District scene with 32 straight wins. Their toughest opponents were the Hermitage Panthers, who have been bitter rivals of the Warriors for several years. However, the Warriors beat them again, winning the District Tournament.

Coach Davis started the season off with six regulars, but lost Richard Sledd, a forward, after only 10 games because of an injury. Fontaine Lewis and Eric Claiborne then became the two starting forwards with Jerry Frostick and Reggie Johnson guarding and Darryll Jackson playing center. The Warriors turned one important game over to Maggie Walker in the Regional Tournament. The Warriors had beaten Walker in the regular season. This was the fifth consecutive year that Henrico made it to the Regional Tournament, and this loss was a low point to all faithful Henrico fans.

The Year of the Dunk

Henrico Warrior players received many top honors this season. Darryll Jackson, Reggie Johnson and Fontaine Lewis made the All District Team with Jackson, Johnson, and Eric Claiborne also playing in the All District Tournament. Some of these Warriors were also involved with All-Region and All-Metro Tournaments. These highly competitive positions were decided upon by local coaches and sportswriters, and it was a great honor for Henrico High School to have these men as participants.

Jerry Frostick and Fontaine Lewis had the opportunity to appear on the F.Y.I. television show with their mothers, to get the "at home" perspective from players and Mothers. When Coach Davis was asked to name a "Most Spirited" Warrior, he could not, saying they all deserved the title. Additionally, Coach Guy Davis was named All-Metro Coach at the end of the 1979 season.

Wrestling is one of school sports. Participants are expected to exhibit maximum strength and endurance while watching their calories in order to "make their weight." # Gymnasts Are High on Their Horse

The Lady Warriors four year undefeated streak was broken this season by Douglas Freeman, but the teams spirit and determination held strong. Several damaging injuries occurred, which involved key competitors Mildred Fulton, Pam Coxford, and Michelle Sprouse. This had a definite effect on the teams performance in several meets, but the team managed to keep up morale and continue to be victorious. High scoring Warriors throughout the season were Michelle Diaz, Claudia Ardledge and Karen Ward. The only returning seniors were Lynn Luck and Mildred Fulton, who will be greatly missed next year. Led by Head Coach Durham and Assistant Coach Judy Hall, the team completed a successful season.

The 1978 H.H.S. Pacers

Fueled with energy, experience, and enthusiasm, the four captains of the varsity track team led their co-workers toward a 6-1 winning season. Overall, the team was strong, but it excelled in distance running. Coach Criswell, a new member of the coaching staff, worked with the weight men. While Coach Wagner conditioned the distance runners. Coach Garbett trained the sprinters and jumpers. Record breaking performances were made by seniors: Dave Robinson's 6'4½" high jump and Perry Wheeler's leap of 21'10½" in the long jump.

Tennis is a Hit

Swinging in victory after victory, the girl's tennis team had a very exciting season. Led by Co-captains Laura Gregory and Martha Stevens, the team was successful in winning over several district rivals. Several of the girls were able to reach regional and state tournaments after their excellent performances in district matches. Coach Carrig was extremely helpful to the team's performance.

The boy's tennis team this year was also victorious. Although the team suffered losses to Tucker and Freeman. Coach Blackburn and the team were very enthusiastic over the win against Thomas Jefferson. Losing only two seniors from the team, Coach Blackburn is looking forward to another exciting season next year.

I've Been Searching So Long . . .

. . . to find an answer. Now I know my life has meaning. This song by Chicago sung by Expressions at the graduation exercises of the Class of 1978 symbolizes the journey through high school this class has made. At times, the going was rough, but the end result is well worth the effort.

The agony of term papers, tired aching muscles after long practices in inhuman temperatures, boring class meetings, bake sales where no one comes, getting up at 10:00 to clean up after Prom when you only got to sleep at 6:30, serving detentions for being late to class, stumbling through the Alma Mater 59 times, battling the indigestion of 720 school lunches, and scraping up a decent date for sixteen school dances all seem worth the trouble when the graduate is handed his diploma.

Clarke . . . Davis . . . Ellen . . .
Forthuber . . . Gibson . . . the names roll off and one by one the members of the Class of 1978 say good-bye to Henrico
High School. Graduation is a sad time for some because it is the end of carefree high school years; when friends are scattered, and teachers must say au revoir to students they have helped through four years of growing up. Graduation is a joyous time because it is a new start for all, whether it be college, a job, or marriage. No matter what the future holds, high school graduation is a memorable event in anyone's life, and the graduation of the Class of
'78 was no exception.
